Lisbon, April 6. N. S.

ADvice being come, that the Moors, after a year's Siege, have taken Mombaca, a Fort belonging to the Portuguese, on the Coast of Africa, and that 'twas feared they would go and besiege Mozambic, the Fortifications of which Place are very much out of repair, three Men of War are sent thither with Supplies of Men, Money, and Ammunition.

Madrid, April 22. The Court is now at the Escurial, and will remove from thence the next week to Aranjuez. The Sieur Carpegni, Envoy from the Elector of Triers, had Audience of Leave of the King and Queen yesterday, and intends in few days to return to Germany. The Duke of Moles, Ambassador from this Crown to the Emperor, has also taken his Leave of the King, and intends very soon to begin his Journey to Vienna. The Marquis de Harcourt, Ambassador from France, will set out from hence in 8 or 10 days, and return to Paris. They write from Cadiz, that they continue with great diligence to fit out the Men of War, which are to sail from thence with Supplies of Men and Ammunition to the West-Indies; And that Orders are given for equipping the Galeons, which may begin their Voyage thither in September next.

Mittaw, April 26. The Saxon Forces before Riga have removed their Camp to the other side of the River Dwina, leaving only a small Detachment on this side, and they have cast up several Works for the better defence of their Camp against the Suedish Succours that are coming to the Relief of the Town; which in the mean time is so closely blocked up, that the Livonians cannot supply the Inhabitants with any Provisions. A Party of 300 Horse are sent from the Camp, to put the neighbouring Country under Contribution, and to get Intelligence concerning the March of the Succours before-mentioned, who are said to have passed by Nerva the 19th Instant, consisting in the Regiments of Horse of Fersen, Rebinder, Horne, Macdell, Amonet, and Budberg; and the Regiments of Foot of Welling, Fersen, Funk, Rutler, Schlippenbag, and Cloth, with whom are joined 3000 Finlanders.

Warsaw, April 26. The Cardinal Primate and the Crown General are expected here from the Country the next week, as are likewise the rest of the Senators that are out of Town, so that 'tis thought the Senate may assemble in the beginning of the next Month; and then 'twill be resolved, Whether the Republick of Poland shall engage in the War with Sweden, which the Polanders do generally seem to have little inclination to. The Negociations are continued between the King of Poland's Ministers and the Danish Envoy, for the making of a stricter Alliance between the two Crowns. The Sieur Beuchling, Councellor of State, is arrived here from Dresden, with a considerable Sum of Money to pay the Saxon Forces in this Kingdom.

Copenhagen, May 4. The Squadron of Men of War lately fitted out in this Port have taken in all their Provisions, and have their Compliment of Men, so that they are in a readiness to put to Sea upon the first Orders they shall receive. The King's Journey to Holstein is again put off; And there is great likelihood, that the Negociations at Hamburgh for accommodating the Affair of Holstein, will be very soon renewed, and carried on with better Success than formerly. The Count de Chamilly, Ambassador from France, went thither this week to be present at the Treaty.

Stockholm, April 24. The King of Sweden and the Duke of Holstein are gone to Carlscrom, to view the Fleet which is fitting out there, and will be ready to put to Sea in few days. A Body of 8000 Men, who were quartered in the Neighbourhood of this Place, are marching to Carelscroon, to be there embarked, and sent to Livonia. The Count de Dhona, Envoy from the Elector of Brandenburgh, has had Audience of Leave of the King, and is returning home. The King has made the Sieur Ackerhielm his Secretary of State, and a Commissioner of the Chancery.

From the Danish Camp before Tonningen, May 6. After having in six days time fired above 5000 Bombs into the Town, we began on the 3d Instant to cease Bombarding it, and have since only made now and then a discharge from our Batteries, to harrass the Forces within the Place, by keeping them continually allarmed. Our Bombs have ruined the greatest part of the Town, but we do not hear that they have killed or wounded above 7 or 8 of the Soldiers or Inhabitants. Part of the Garrison was employed to put out the Fire of such Bombs as they could come at, before the Fuzees were quite burnt out, by throwing wet Ox-Hides upon them. We expect a considerable Supply of Ammunition from Gluckstad, and then 'tis said we shall either Bombard afresh, or formally besiege the Place. But we hear, some Overtures have been made of a Negociation at Hamburgh, for adjusting Matters between the King of Denmark and the Duke of Holstein, which may probably put a stop to all further Military Proceedings on this side.

Francfort, May 6. The Queen of Poland having left Bareith, where she had continued some days, arrived yesterday at Wertheim. She was Complimented in the name of the Elector of Triers, by the Baron of Schomborne his Brother, who is to conduct her in her Passage through His Electoral Highness's Territories; and she is expected here this Evening. The Magistrates of this Place intended her a Reception suitable to her Quality, but she excused it, intending to be incognito. The Landgrave and Landgravine of Hesse-Dramstad are hourly expected here, and design to accompany her to Eubs, at which Place she will spend part of the Summer to use the Waters. The Bishop of Munster, Paderborne, Hildesheim, and Osnabrug, have given Orders for recruiting their Forces, and for filling their Magazines with Ammunition, which is thought necessary on account of the present State of Affairs in the North.

Hamburgh, May 7. The Negociation for adjusting the Differences between the King of Denmark and the Duke of Holstein, is continued with great application. The Mediators had lately a Conference with the Danish Ministers, in which they represented to them, That the King of Denmark's Forces having taken and demolished the Duke's new Forts, they did not question but he would now consent, that the Treaty for accommodating these Matters should be renewed, and they declared, That if the King of Denmark continued in his design to take Tonningen, and thereby make himself Master of all the Dutchy of Holstein, the Princes and States their Masters would
